

DEVARIM CHAIM

(WORDS OF LIFE)

A publication of Kehillah B'nei Abraham

June 2026

Kehillah B'nei Abraham (KBA) is translated as Congregation of the Children of Abraham where Jewish and Gentile Believers live out their faith in the G-D of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and His Messiah Yeshua.

We worship and learn together from all the richness of G-D's Living Word (Genesis through Revelation); especially the revelation of G-D's Holy Son, Messiah Yeshua. We do this in the culture of Judaism (which is the culture our Messiah lived during His time on earth--His first coming) in order to better understand His teachings to live out His instructions in our daily lives.

Open Arms for Visitors: Visitors are always a cherished part of our community! We extend a warm invitation to you, your friends, and your family to join us for any of our services. Our Shabbat Shacharit services are live streamed right from our website www.kba.life.

Yeshua
Salvation

Devotional from Worthy Brief

Romans 11:12-15 Now if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness! 13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and save some of them. 15 For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

Paul does not treat Israel's restoration as a side issue. He ties it directly to a blessing for the world. "Now if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!" [Romans 11:12]. That phrase — how much more — carries tremendous prophetic expectation. Paul is reasoning from mercy already seen to mercy still coming. If Israel's stumbling opened a door of riches to the nations, what will Israel's fullness release?

Israel's stumbling opened a door that changed everything — the gospel went out to the nations. People who had no part in G-D's covenants, who were on the outside looking in, were suddenly brought near through the blood of Yeshua [Ephesians 2:12–13]. Wild branches were grafted into the olive tree. The nations began to worship Israel's G-D, read Israel's Scriptures, and call on Israel's King.

But Paul says that is not the end of the story.

He answers with one of the most stunning phrases in the New Testament: "For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?" [Romans 11:15]. Resurrection language. Revival language. Kingdom language. Paul does not see Israel's future acceptance as a threat to the nations. He sees it as a blessing beyond anything the nations can fathom — a release of life, revival, and resurrection power.

This is where we must rightly understand the blessing of Abraham. Many speak of blessing Israel, and we should bless what G-D has promised to restore. But the deepest blessing is more than sentiment, politics, or admiration from a distance. It is to pray, labor, and intercede for Israel to behold Yeshua (Jesus) — the Son of David, the promised Messiah in whom the covenant reaches its fullness. If the nations have already been blessed through Israel's stumbling, how much greater will the blessing be when Israel comes into her fullness?

That question should awaken something in the church. The blessing that is coming is not small or distant — it is tied to everything G-D has been doing since Abraham. The wild branches were grafted in by mercy, but the natural branches are not forgotten — "G-D is able to graft them in again" [Romans 11:23]. Not into a foreign tree. Not into a new religion, cut off from their fathers. Back into their own olive tree through faith in Yeshua. And when that happens, it will not be a quiet, theological footnote. True revival bends history toward the purposes of the King. It stirs the church to pray for what G-D has promised. It causes believers to hunger not only for personal renewal, but for the restoration of all things spoken by the prophets [Acts 3:21].

The nations do not lose when Israel is restored to Yeshua -- they receive greater riches than they have ever known. The Kingdom is not threatened by Israel's restoration. It is completed through it. The greater blessing is still coming, and it will touch every nation, every tongue, and every generation that has been waiting for the King to finish what He started.

Pray for Israel's salvation with joy and real expectation, because when Israel comes into her fullness, it releases blessing into the whole world -- including the very revival your own heart longs to see. The G-D who opened the door for the nations through Yeshua has not forgotten the people through whom the promises first came. So bless Israel by praying for her eyes to be opened to her King. As Israel turns to Yeshua, G-D's blessing reaches further, His faithfulness becomes undeniable, and resurrection life begins to move where death once seemed final. Expect revival to touch your family, your ministry, and your own life -- because the one who blesses what G-D has promised to restore will not go unblessed.

Your family in the L-RD with much agape love,
